HELPING THE WORKING POOR

ASSIST WORKING FAMILIES TO ACHIEVE GREATER SELF-SUFFICIENCY AND RECEIVE A TAX CREDIT

Helping the Working charities help provide job-skills training, affordable childcare, educational opportunities and more to the working poor in our community.

These are individuals and families with low wage jobs that just can't make ends meet. By investing a portion of your contribution to a Helping the Working Poor charity, you help provide the means to increase self-sufficiency, and you could receive an Arizona state tax credit of up to $400.*

In order to take advantage of the Helping the Working Poor state tax credit, you must:

Itemize your charitable contributions

Direct up to $400* to a Helping the Working Poor charity

Maintain a copy of your pledge card or online contribution confirmation for tax filing or provide a copy to your tax advisor

For more information about the Helping the Working Poor State of Arizona tax credit, call 602.631.4800.

*Arizona State Income Tax credits of between $200 and $400 are available based on your income tax filing status. The State Employees Charitable Campaign is not a tax advisor. As with any financial matters, contact a qualified tax professional for expert advice on your specific tax situation.
